The Liver and Lungs, the Spleen, the Stomach and the Heart all "pitched into" the Kidneys.

"It's your fault," said the Liver.
"You have certain work to do and you don't do it. It is your place to filter all the poisons and impurities out of the body, and you are not doing it.

"As a consequence," said the Stomach, "we are all being clogged, poisoned and irritated. If am irritable and only half digest the food they are forcing into me. Here's the Liver all clogged and torpid, the Lungs are all choked up, we don't get half enough oxygen, the Head is aching, the Nerves tingling, the Hack is aching, and the poor Heart is laboring like a sledge-hammer.

"Even the Joints and Muscles cry out with Rheumatic pains."

"But we can't belon it." said the Kidneys.

"Even the Joints and Muscles cry out with Rheumatic pains."
"But we can't help it," said the Kidneys.
"We can't do impossibilities. We are sick and weak ourselves and cannot do our work. Of course, these poisons collect in the blood and irritate and disease you. The moment we stop work you feel it. Your health always did and always will depend on our activity."

And just then an ordinary, every-day, common-sense doctor who knew his business was called in and prescribed Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

The Kidneys promptly responded and set cheerfully to work with renewed strength and vigor; the Uric Acid, the waste products of decay and of fever, the ashes of digestion, and all the poisons and impurities in the blood were

"Well, that's something like it," said the Lungs. "I'll pitch in and do my work now," said the Stomach.

"What a relief," said the Liver and the Heart, and the Joints and Muscles joined the chorus.

The quarrel was over. It was a happy family, working harmoniously once more.

THE FISH COMMISSION BANKBUPT. Serious Charges Made Against the Old

Commission and Its Secretary. ALBANY, Nov. 29 .- The entanglements in the new State Fish, Game, and Forest Commission, which succeeded the old Fish and Forest Com-missions in April last, have now taken on a more serious aspect. The Commission is almost in a sondition of bankruptcy. Bills which ought to be paid are unpaid, and the expenses of the Commission are piling up. There would be no money to the credit of the Commission if bills were paid. Books which it has been generally supposed were in proper shape are either in such a condition that nothing can be ascertained from them or they have been lost. Secretary Edward P. Doyle of the eld Commission, who is now being criticised by the new Commission for the manner in which he conducted business while in office, has called a meeting of the old Commission, to be held in meeting of the old Commission, to be held in this city on Monday, Dec. 2. By this Mr. Doyle, it is said, expects to vindicate himself, but in doing so the two Commissions will have to disagree, and consequently have a controversy.

The new Commission has now made public the findings of the commistee appointed to look into its financial condition. This report says:

"Of the $92.750.82 appropriated May 10, 1895, for the maintenance and work of the Commission for the fiscal year ending Oct. 1, 1896, we had, outside of funds specially appropriated for the purchase of lands, but $34,019.31 left on Oct. 31, about one-fifth of which is required at once to liquidate debts incurred by ourselves, without considering the obligations contracted by our predecessors. We believe that this Board should decide at once whether they will from the funds on hand pay any more accounts of the old Commission, and if they conclude not to do so, inform every creditor of the fact and why they cannot settle their claim and when they might reasonably expect relief."

It is evident by this that before Oct. 1, 1806, the Commission will, if it pays its debts, be in a state of bankruptcy unless the Legislature comes forward and makes a special appropriation to tide the Commission over. This it is expected will meet with some opposition unpected will meet with some opposition un-der the claim that the appropriation of 1895 was sufficient if it had been managed in a busiwas sufficient if it had been managed in a business way.

The report says that shortages have been found in the fines and penalties account, and that the oyster franchise book shows a discrepancy on its face of about $1,200. It adds:

"The late Secretary admitted that he expected that account to be found short, but as yet all books and data for checking the account are in New York. Our expert accountant reports informally that he finds that duplicate vouchers have been used to considerable extent in settlement of shortages, which, as your committee think, explains the determined effort to keep all vouchers from the possession or inspection of this Board."

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

An Electric Company, a Jeweller, and a Cloak Manufacturer Fall,

The Solar Electric Company of 65 and 67 Duane street has applied to the Supreme Court for the voluntary dissolution of the company, and Judge Bookman has appointed Senator Jacob Rice of Kingston, one of the directors, receiver, with a bond of $8,000. The liabilities and assets are small, and there is a suit for $10,000 damages against the company, brought by Thomas Paterson of Elizabeth for injuries to his hand. liabilities are about $30,000. The assets consist of stock, $15,000, and book accounts, $40,000, the greater part of which is not worth much. Henry Berger, tailor, at 2,000 Seventh avenue, confessed judgment yesterday for $510 in favor of Harry Reiner for money loaned, and Deputy Sheriff Whoriskey levied on the place.

Etta Frank (Frank & Co.), manufacturer of cloaks, at 27 Walker street, made an assignment yesterday to Jacob J. Wallenstein, without preference. She is the wife of Abraham Frank, who did business in her name. Lee Lithauer, attorney for Mrs. Frank, said the failure was due to the mild weather, in consequence of which she was unable to sell cloaks.

Deputy Sheriff Butler has levied on the place of business of the Consumers' Hygienic Ice of Manufacturing Company, at 410 East Fifty-third atreet, three executions having been entered against the company in favor of the following creditors: Albert L. Foss, $465; Diedrich Haaren, $290; Lehigh Valley Coal Company, $1,224. The company was incorporated in 1800 by a number of well-known restaurant and saloon men, with a capital stock of $250,000, of which $170,000 is said to have been paid in and a large part of it invested in the plant.

Millionaire David G. Thompson Left No Will

It is said that during his lifetime the millionaire bachelor, David G. Thompson, had often told his intimate friends that when he died he intended leaving $500,000 to found a home for inebriates. Mr. Thompson died on Oct. 17 in his incbriates. Mr. Thompson died on Oct. 17 in his apartments in the Westminster Hotel, and since then his friends have been wondering why the will had not been probated and what provision had been made for the realization of his hobby. A SUS reporter called at 17 West Thirty-sixth street, the home of Charles G. Thompson, a brother of having G. Thompson, has evening, and was told by Mr. Thompson that his brother had left no will. He said that the property would be divided among the brothers and sisters of the dead man according to law.

Burned White Cleaning a Bedstead. John Lange of 339 Henderson street, Jersey City, volunteered on Thursday night to clean bedstead for his wife. He was provided with some benzine and went to work. In a few minutes there was an explosion and a flash, and when Mrs. Lange ran into the room she found her husband enveloped in flames. The fire was extinguished, but Lange was so badly burned that it was deemed advisable to remove him to the City Hospital. It is feared that he inhaled some of the flame. HAMBURG STEAMERS' SHORT ROUTE How Time Is Saved Getting the Mails to According to despatches from London printed in yesterday morning's papers, the Hamburg-American steamer Fuerst Bismarck, which fiuished her first trip to Plymouth, the new route to London that Hamburg-American liners will take in the future, in 6 days 11 hours and 4 minutes on Thursday, succeeded in landing the mails in London six hours earlier than they were delivered when the steamer ran to South ampton. This is not quite accurate. She prob ampton. This is not quite accurate. She probably got to them to London about three hours earlier than she would have done if she had gone on to Southampton on this trip. She has made Southampton in 6 days 10 hours and 55 minutes, nearly two hours better than the Plymonth rue, and Southampton is only two hours from London by rail, while Plymouth is five hours away, so that she didn't beat her record to London for her mails. But had she gone on to Southampton this time she would have spent six hours longer at sea. From Plymouth to the Needles is a four-hour trip, and it is two hours more from the Needles to Southampton. Then there is the two-hour railroad run into London, making eight hours in all; while the run from Plymouth to London is five hours on the average, or three hours' gain.
